

Programme: Cross-Cutting (Advancing Development Justice Through Asia Pacific Regional CSO Engagement Mechanism)	Workplan period: October 2014 – July 2015
--	--

Outcome 1: Build capacity of Asia Pacific CSOs, peoples' movements and grassroots organisations to engage with and influence Regional and International processes around sustainable development and development justice

Outcome 2: Provide resources and information about the AP-RCEM and their common analysis around Development Justice to all constituencies and sub-regions;

Outcome 3: Secure space for civil society representatives from the region to effectively advocate in intergovernmental processes in the regional and international levels;

Outcome 4: Build RCEM infrastructure to enable governance, communication and coordination

Outcome 1: Build capacity of Asia Pacific CSOs, peoples' movements and grassroots organisations to engage with and influence Regional and International processes around sustainable development and development justice

Year	Activity	Target	Output	Outcome Indicator
October 2013 – July 2015	Mapping and Outreach on AP-RCEM and Development Justice	Asia-Pacific CSOs, movements, networks and grassroots organisations work on the issue of sustainable development	Database of Asia Pacific CSOs based on constituencies and sub-regions engaging with the RCEM.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 80% of 16 constituencies [OR1] in the RCEM provide data of CSOs, peoples movements, network and grassroots organisations engaging with the RCEM 75% of 80 participants [OR2] provide action plans in their regional, national works containing development justice and RCEM. Impact indicators: Evidence that partners have utilised the knowledge and methods in this programme and in their broader work on sustainable development
May 2015	Capacity Building Workshop on Development Justice and SDG process	Grassroots constituencies based organisations (women, farmers, fisherfolks, migrants, people with disabilities, LGBTIQ, indigenous peoples, urban poor, people living with and affected by HIV and AIDS, etc)	Workshop report Development Justice advocacy action plans in the national level

Outcome 2: Provide resources and information about the AP-RCEM and their common analysis around Development Justice to all constituencies and sub-regions;

Year	Activity	Target	Output	Indicators
November 2014	Develop Website and social-media platform for RCEM	Wider public Social and people's movements, sustainable development advocates	Website Facebook Twitter	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 10 of 16 constituencies provide feedback and content for AP-RCEM tools and resources (website, booklets and factsheets) Impact Indicator: evidence that constituencies are utilising the tools and resources to assert on development justice and outreach on RCEM, evidence that they build it into their advocacy or
January 2015	Publication on Asia Pacific Regional CSO Engagement Mechanism and Development Justice translated to 4 language	CSOs and peoples' movements UN bodies	500 exp Booklet [OR3] on RCEM and Development Justice Factsheets on development justice for migrants, trade unions, farmers, indigenous peoples, fisherfolks, people living and affected by HIV, and youth (7 constituencies)- (translated to 4 language)	adapt it to their local context. (NB - Baseline Data on ICT coverage will be collated in the first year for future indicators)

January 2015	Desk Review on the Asia Pacific countries' development indicators and role in Post 2015 and Development Agenda	Asia-Pacific CSOs, UN bodies	Advocacy materials
November 2014	Communication toolkit on AP-RCEM and Development Justice	AP-RCEM Constituencies and Sub-regional Focal Points.	Toolkit
Outcome 3: Secure space for civil society representatives from the region to effectively advocate in intergovernmental processes in the regional and international levels;
Year	Activity	Target	Output	Indicator
Year throughout	Advocacy Engagement ^[OR4] with the in at at least 3 sub-regional, regional and international intergovernmental processes on sustainable development and Post 2015 .-	Government UNESCAP, and other UN bodies	Constituencies contribute to official process and debates on sustainable development in subregional and regional level. Advocacy materials	1. 60% of constituencies secure engagement with formal processes on sustainable development 2. Impact indicator: Development Justice and key messages of RCEM reflected in outcome documents and decisions.
Outcome 4: Build RCEM infrastructure to enable governance, communication and coordination
November 2014, May 2015 Every 2 months throughout the year	Strengthening Communication and Coordination through: a. Face to Face Coordination Meeting of Transition Committee and Advisory Group b. Regular Teleconference of the TC and AG	AP – RCEM Transition Committee (Constituency and Sub-regional Focal Points) Advisory Groups	Future Workplan beyond 2015 Term of Reference Decisions on Focal Points	1. 70% of 21 Focal Points ^[OR5] actively engage and contribute in the discussion of RCEM infrastructures and governance 2. Impact Indicator: Future Structure and modalities of AP-RCEM

